Bits Corp unveils Rogue Ops

Bits Corp plc ('Bits Corp'), a leading UK developer of video games software for major console platforms, is pleased to announce further details of its recently-signed agreement with Kotobuki System Co., Ltd, the video games division of global video games publisher Kemco.

Rogue Ops, an action adventure game, is set for distribution on Nintendo's GameCube™, Sony's PlayStation® 2 and Microsoft's Xbox™ and is scheduled for release in Q4 2003.

Commenting on the agreement with Kemco, Foo Katan, Chief Executive of Bits Corp, said: "We are thrilled to have partnered with Kemco, an innovative publisher whose support will be invaluable in maximising the potential of Rogue Ops."

"We are extremely excited about the promise of Rogue Ops," said Glenn Halseth, Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Kemco. "Early feedback on the title is that we have something very special and we are eager to place it in the hands of gamers later this year."

Rogue Ops will be unveiled at the E3 games convention in Los Angeles later this month.
