Rogue Ops to hit Europe on 6 February

Bits Corp plc ('Bits Corp' or 'the Company'), a leading UK developer of video games software for major console platforms, is pleased to announce further information with respect to its agreement with games publisher Kemco for Rogue Ops, an action adventure game developed by the Company.

Kemco together with its selected distribution partners, which include Capcom for the UK and Germany, will serve as distributors for Rogue Ops, which was released in the USA at the end of October on Nintendo's GameCube™, Sony's PlayStation® 2 and Microsoft's Xbox™.

"We are excited that Rogue Ops will have Capcom's experienced distribution team behind it and are delighted with Kemco's choice of distribution partner." said Foo Katan, Chief Executive of Bits Corp.

Commenting on the agreement, Mr Futami, president of Kemco USA, said: "Capcom has firmly established itself as a leading video games publisher worldwide. We are extremely pleased that they will be assisting us in bringing what we believe is our best title yet to Europe..."

Rogue Ops will be released in Europe on all current generation console platforms on 6 February 2004 and in Japan during Q1 2004.
